Unofficial Election Night Results for 2026 Primary Election

Early Voting and Vote-by-Mail results will be initially released on Election Night. These results may be updated as the office completes the review of all eligible Vote-by-Mail ballots received by the Supervisor of Elections prior to 7 p.m. on Election Day. Voters with Vote-by-Mail issues have until 5 p.m. on Thursday following the election to cure their ballot, in accordance with Florida law.

The Supervisor of Elections Office anticipates having all precinct results reported and available on the results website by approximately 9 p.m. While final reporting of unofficial results may be completed sooner, the office provides this estimated timeframe to ensure expectations are met and to avoid underestimating the time required for secure result collection and processing.

Results from eligible Provisional Ballots are not included in preliminary, unofficial local election results. Any person casting a Provisional Ballot has until the second day following the election to present proof of eligibility. Once verified, results from eligible Provisional Ballots are included in the first unofficial results and all subsequent official results of the election.

The first unofficial results, second unofficial results (if required for recounts), and the official election results will be complied with and released according to the dates designated by the Canvassing Board.

The Elections Office encourages the public and media to remember that Election Night results are unofficial and subject to change as ballot processing and canvassing continue in accordance with state and local election laws.
